In Remembrance of the Day of Emancipation the Beck Cultural Exchange Center, announces its Third Annual Eighth of August Jubilee. Beginning Tuesday, August 8 at the Historic Tennessee Theatre, we are planning to fill all 1,638 seats as we host a Documentary and Dialogue titled, "The Uncomfortable Truth," featuring the film's producer Loki Mulholland, son of famous civil rights activist Joan Trumpauer Mulholland. Church groups are encouraged to attend and group seating will be arranged. General admission tickets are $10.00 and special VIP tickets are $50.00. Events will conclude on Saturday, August 12, first with the one-hour Libation Ceremony at 10:00 a.m. at Knoxville College followed by the Jubilee at Chilhowee Park beginning at 1:00 p.m. and will feature special live performance by Chris Blue, The Voice Winner 2017.
